CHARLES I, 1625-1649

Crown against Parliament

Percorso

▼ claims

1 DIVINE RIGHT

kings chosen by God;
absolute power;
total obedience

▼ then

2 TAXES AND CHURCH

taxes without consent of Parliament; obey the Church of England

▼ but

3 PETITION OF RIGHT

1628: no taxes without Parliament; no prison
without a good reason

▼ still

4 WILLIAM LAUD

Archbishop of Canterbury;

persecutes the Puritans;

later executed

▼ so

5 PERSONAL RULE

1629: Parliament shut;

11 years as a despot

(until 1640)

▼ until

6 THE 1640 PARLIAMENTS

Short (a month), then

Long: refuses funds,

reduces king's power

▼ beware

7 COMMON MISTAKES

Royalists = Puritans (✗)

Short = Long (✗)

1628 = 1629 (✗)

▼ really

8 CIVIL WAR 1642-49

Royalists v Roundheads;

Cromwell's Ironsides win

Marston Moor, Naseby

▼ ends in

9 1649

king refuses the court;

death warrant signed;

beheaded in January

Connessioni chiave

→ The king (1) wants power and taxes without Parliament (2); Laud (4) helps him.

→ After 11 years alone (5), the Long Parliament (6) goes against him.

→ The Civil War (8) ends with the king beheaded in January 1649 (9).

Mappa 2 di 10 · Cromwell and the Commonwealth

THE COMMONWEALTH

1649-1660: England without a king

Percorso

▼ becomes

1 1649: REPUBLIC

Commonwealth: a Republic; monarchy and House of Lords abolished

▼ run by

2 RUMP PARLIAMENT

until 1653: only supporters of the Republic sit in the Commons

▼ until

3 1650: REACTION

Royalist reaction in Ireland and Scotland;
Dunbar: crushed

▼ then

4 1653: PROTECTOR

Cromwell closes

Parliament; Lord Protector

a military dictator

▼ rules

5 THREE COUNTRIES

he rules England,

Ireland and Scotland

▼ but

6 1655: RISING

another Royalist rising;

Cromwell rules

through the army

▼ beware

7 COMMON MISTAKES

Rump = Lords (✗)

Dunbar = Naseby (✗)

Richard = Charles (✗)

▼ then

8 1658

Cromwell is succeeded by his son Richard, who abdicates after 8 months

▼ so

9 THE END

the Republic falls apart; the monarchy returns in 1660

Connessioni chiave

→ The Republic (1) is ruled by the Rump Parliament (2) until Cromwell closes it (4).

→ Cromwell, Lord Protector, rules three countries (5), then through the army (6).

→ In 1658 his son Richard (8) abdicates: the Republic falls apart (9).

THE RESTORATION

1660-1688: Charles II and James II

Percorso

▼ returns

1 CHARLES II

king 1660-1685;
first Parliament almost all Royalists

▼ wants

2 PARLIAMENT'S AIM

restore king and Parliament; the king
can never rule alone

▼ brings

3 THE CHURCH

the Church of England is brought back by Parliament

▼ then

4 JAMES II

1685-1688; brother of Charles II;

a Catholic king

▼ oppose

5 THE WHIGS

anti-Catholic;

want to limit the powers of the monarch

▼ versus

6 TEST ACT 1673

public office only for Protestants who accept

the king as Church head

▼ beware

7 COMMON MISTAKES

Whigs = monarchy (✗)

Test Act = 1689 (✗)

James II Protestant (✗)

▼ but

8 THE TORIES

support the monarchy

▼ so

9 AFTER JAMES

William of Orange comes;

James II flees abroad:

Glorious Revolution

Connessioni chiave

→ Parliament (2) restores king (1) and Church (3), but the king cannot rule alone.

→ Whigs (5) limit the monarch; Tories (8) support him; the Test Act (6).

→ The Catholic James II (4) flees abroad (9).

AFTER 1688

from William and Mary to Queen Anne

Percorso

▼ arrive

1 WILLIAM AND MARY

1689-1702; William of Orange, Protestant, husband of Mary Stuart

▼ gives

2 BILL OF RIGHTS 1689

king’s power limited: parliamentary constitutional monarchy

▼ then

3 QUEEN ANNE

1702-1714; Mary’s sister

1707: Act of Union:

England + Scotland

▼ also

4 GLORIOUS REVOLUTION

they arrive; James II flees abroad; they are crowned king and queen

▼ then

5 TOLERATION ACT

1689: Dissenters get freedom of worship

▼ versus

6 SPANISH SUCCESSION

England, Holland, Prussia
v France, Spain, Portugal England wins battles

▼ beware

7 COMMON MISTAKES

Bill of Rights = Union (✗)
1701 = 1707 (✗)
Utrecht = Culloden (✗)

▼ then

8 ACT OF SETTLEMENT

1701: only Protestants can be heirs to the throne

▼ also

9 UTRECHT 1713

Britain gets Gibraltar and Minorca; trade with Spanish colonies

Connessioni chiave

→ William and Mary (1) arrive: Glorious Revolution (4), Bill of Rights (2).

→ Toleration Act (5) and Act of Settlement (8): freedom of worship, Protestant heirs.

→ Anne (3) wins the Spanish Succession war (6); Utrecht 1713 (9).

THE AUGUSTAN AGE

George I (1714) and George II

Percorso

▼ crowned

1 GEORGE I

1714; Elector of Hanover; proclaimed
after Queen Anne

▼ needs

2 PRIME MINISTER

link between ministers and king: George I didn't speak English

▼ since

3 GEORGE II

1727-1760; wars for colonies and trade

▼ first

4 WALPOLE

Sir Robert Walpole

(1676-1745): the first

Prime Minister

▼ against

5 JACOBITES

support James II's son

James and grandson

Charles; 1715 fails

▼ namely

6 THREE WARS

Jenkins' Ear 1739;

Austrian Succession 1740-48

Seven Years' War 1756-63

▼ beware

7 COMMON MISTAKES

George I = George II (✗)

Culloden = Dunbar (✗)

Pitt = Walpole (✗)

▼ then

8 CULLODEN 1746

the last Jacobite rising (1745) is defeated in Scotland

▼ also

9 SEVEN YEARS' WAR

global war; Pitt the Elder; Britain stronger in India and Canada

Connessioni chiave

→ George I (1) did not speak English: so the Prime Minister (2, 4) was created.

→ The Jacobites (5) rose in 1715 and 1745; they lost at Culloden (8).

→ Under George II (3) Britain fought for colonies (6): the Seven Years' War (9).

PURITAN LITERATURE

1625-1660: Puritans in power

Percorso

▼ shows

1 FEATURES

reflective tone; moral lessons; religious fervor; afterlife

▼ splits

2 TWO TYPES

17th-century poetry: Puritan poets and Metaphysical poets

▼ namely

3 JOHN MILTON

best represents the poetry of the century; a fervent Puritan

▼ like

4 PURITAN POETS

purification of society;

salvation, predestination;

didactic; the Bible

▼ versus

5 METAPHYSICAL POETS

philosophical concepts;

dissatisfaction;

love and religion

▼ e.g.

6 PARADISE LOST

1667: epic poem on the fall and redemption

of mankind

▼ beware

7 COMMON MISTAKES

Donne = Puritan (✗)

conceit = rhyme (✗)

Milton = metaphysical (✗)

▼ namely

8 CONCEIT

extended metaphor:

surprising comparison

of two different things

▼ e.g.

9 JOHN DONNE

love and man-God;

love: spiritual and physical; not Petrarch

Connessioni chiave

→ Puritan literature (1) has two kinds of poets (2): Puritan (4), Metaphysical (5).

→ Metaphysical poets use conceits (8); the most famous is John Donne (9).

→ Milton (3) is the Puritan author of Paradise Lost (6).

JOHN MILTON

1608-1674: Puritan poet

Percorso

▼ born

1 LIFE

1608 London, Puritan family; St Paul’s School; Cambridge

▼ then

2 FIRST PERIOD

L’Allegro, Il Penseroso
(1631, after Petrarch)
Defensio 1651: Cromwell

▼ then

3 SECOND PERIOD

pamphlets and prose; Areopagitica (1644):
freedom of speech

▼ while

4 POLITICS

supports Cromwell

and the Puritans;

blind by 1651

▼ namely

5 LIBERTIES

religious, civil, domestic;

press; Parliament;

divorce

▼ then

6 THIRD PERIOD

blindness and poverty;

masterpiece:

Paradise Lost (1667)

▼ beware

7 COMMON MISTAKES

blind in 1608 (✗)

Areopagitica = poem (✗)

died in 1667 (✗)

▼ then

8 1660

fell from grace with the Restoration; hid;

1664-74: poetry

▼ then

9 1674

he dies. A famous line:

“The mind is its own place…” (Paradise Lost)

Connessioni chiave

→ A Puritan (1) who supported Cromwell (4) and defended freedom of speech (3, 5).

→ The Restoration (8) brought him poverty; blind, he wrote Paradise Lost (6).

→ Three periods: poems (2), prose (3), the masterpiece (6).

PARADISE LOST: PLOT

Genesis retold, 1667

Percorso

▼ opens

1 CHAINED IN HELL

the poem begins:

Satan and his friend

on a lake of fire

▼ plans

2 BEELZEBUB'S IDEA

corrupt mankind,

God's beloved

new creation

▼ but

3 GOD KNOWS

God knows at once about the disobedience

▼ so

4 THEY FREE THEMSELVES

and want to start

another war against God

▼ then

5 THE SERPENT

Satan returns to Eden;

compliments Eve; he ate

the Tree's fruit

▼ then

6 PUNISHMENT

the serpent must crawl;

Adam and Eve:

pain and death

▼ beware

7 COMMON MISTAKES

Adam eats first (✗)

Michael punishes (✗)

Satan stays in Hell (✗)

▼ so

8 EVE AND ADAM EAT

Eve eats; Adam is horrified, but eats too:
fallen with her

▼ then

9 REDEMPTION

archangel Michael shows
the future of mankind;
they leave Eden

Connessioni chiave

→ In Hell Satan (1) frees himself (4); Beelzebub’s idea (2) leads to the serpent (5).

→ Eve and Adam eat the fruit (8); God knows at once (3) and punishes them (6).

→ Michael shows a vision of redemption (9).

PARADISE LOST: IDEAS

themes, universe, Satan, style

Percorso

▼ shows

1 TWO PATHS

Satan: sin, punishment

Man: repentance,

hope of redemption

▼ within

2 FOUR REALMS

Heaven (above), Hell

(below), Chaos,

a young Earth

▼ namely

3 SATAN

refuses God’s superiority;

banished to Hell;

“Better to reign in Hell”

▼ namely

4 THEMES

disobedience, rebellion, redemption, God's grace and mercy

▼ from

5 HIERARCHY

the Son, archangels,
humans, animals,
devils (near to far)

▼ first

6 HEROIC, THEN LOW

at first heroic: refuses defeat; in the end degradation, vanity

▼ beware

7 COMMON MISTAKES

Satan chooses redemption (✗) science-based universe (✗)
rhymed verse (✗)

▼ namely

8 STYLE

complex; allusions;

archaic words; extended

similes; educated readers

▼ namely

9 METER

blank verse: unrhymed

iambic pentameters

(Marlowe, Shakespeare)

Connessioni chiave

→ Two moral paths (1): Satan chooses damnation; Adam and Eve, redemption.

→ The universe has four realms (2) and a hierarchy by closeness to God (5).

→ Satan (3, 6) looks heroic, then degraded; style (8) is complex; blank verse (9).

1625 TO PARADISE LOST

how the topics are connected

Percorso

▼ starts with

1 CIVIL WAR

Charles I, Divine Right;

Petition of Right 1628;

war 1642-49; beheaded

▼ then

2 COMMONWEALTH

Republic 1649; Cromwell

Lord Protector 1653;

Richard 1658

▼ then

3 THE RESTORATION

Charles II 1660; Test Act

Whigs and Tories;

James II (Catholic)

▼ then

4 1689-1714

Glorious Revolution;

Bill of Rights; Anne;

Union 1707; Utrecht

▼ then

5 AUGUSTAN AGE

George I: Prime Minister;

Jacobites; Culloden;

Seven Years' War

▼ then

6 PURITAN LITERATURE

Puritan and Metaphysical

poets; John Donne;

conceits

▼ meanwhile

7 JOHN MILTON

1608-1674; Puritan;

Areopagitica; blind;

Paradise Lost

▼ leads to

8 PARADISE LOST

Satan’s rebellion; Eve and Adam eat; redemption disobedience, rebellion, redemption; four realms;
Satan heroic then degraded; blank verse

Connessioni chiave

→ History: war (1), republic (2), Restoration (3), William, Anne (4), Georges (5).

→ Literature: Puritan and Metaphysical poets (6), then John Milton (7).

→ Milton’s masterpiece is Paradise Lost (8). Dates: 1625, 1649, 1660, 1689, 1714.